

Youth Art Contest

Theme – Alachua County Agriculture

Alachua County Farm Bureau Women's Committee offers students 1st-12th the opportunity to be rewarded for their artistic skills and appreciation for local agriculture in Alachua County with its annual art contest.

Contest Guidelines

- Open to all Alachua County students in grades 1-12 in three categories: Grades 1-5, 6-8 and 9-12.
- The first-place artist in each grade category will be awarded $100.00, second-place $50.00 and third-place $25.00 and the 1st place winners' school will receive a gift basket of various art supplies.
- Acceptable media: Ink, pencil, oil, acrylic, crayon, or watercolor. We do not have a category for graphic design creations or photography, so all work must be created by hand.
- Paper or canvas should be no larger than 20" x 14".
- Artwork should be camera ready.
- Each piece should include the bottom part of this contest application completed legibly and carefully affixed to the back; one entry per student.
- The student must be willing to allow Alachua County Farm Bureau to reprint copies of their art, and the winning artwork becomes the property of the Farm Bureau. Artwork will be displayed publicly at a time and place as determined by the Alachua County Farm Bureau.
- No glass or picture frames
- Artwork will be judged on creativity and use of the agricultural theme.
- Entries, with completed entry forms are due to the Alachua County Farm Bureau at 16206 NW 163rd Lane, Alachua, Florida 32615, Attention: Victoria Mohr, by Friday, October 23, 2026, at 4 PM.
- For further information call (386) 418-4008 or email victoria.mohr@ffbf.org.
